Victor Jimenez - Executive Chef & Owner of Cowboy Star Restaurant & Butcher Shop

Executive Chef Victor Jimenez has presided over some of San Diego's most well loved restaurants including the Gulf Coast Grill, Thee Bungalow, and most recently, Jordan in the Tower 23 Hotel. Using his imaginative palate, Chef Victor designed the original menu at Cowboy Star with a special emphasis on the meats and accompaniments that are offered to diners as well as in the butcher shop.

It was only natural for Executive Chef/Owner Victor Jimenez to continue his family's culinary legacy. Growing up with a father born in Spain and a mother born in Mexico, every meal in this food-loving family was a fabulous feast. Additionally, his maternal grandmother was an expert cook, and another major culinary influence. His first job at 15 was in a restaurant. Earning a college degree in Economics, he continued to work in restaurants during his schooling. After graduation, he enrolled in the prestigious Le Cordon Bleu in Paris, fine-tuning his extraordinary style of cooking.

Executive Chef Jimenez continues to redefine the culinary landscape in San Diego, ensuring top quality dining for every guest. Working with a palette of the finest ingredients available, he creates menu masterpieces, which embody the spirit of the American West and utilize the season's freshest offerings. His passion and creativity insure a wealth of unique and down-right delicious options sure to satisfy all tastes.
